Little Leaguers, Dads Dine Out; Out-of-Staters Visit Walteria

BETTY MITCHELL
DA 6-4438

A local case was the scene of a gala occasion Wednesday evening when the Little League ball players and their dads attended a father and son banquet.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Johnson attended the wedding of L. W. Meek, Sunday. He is the brother of Mrs. Johnson. Meek, who lives in Santa Monica, was a proud groom when he was wed to June Dickerson in the bride's Los Angeles home. Reverend Gene Gehres of Walteria performed the ceremony. The bride wore a beautiful blue lace ballgown with matching blue veil and carried pink roses with white orchid center. Over fifty close friends and relatives attended the private ceremony and remained to congratulate the bride and groom at the reception held immediately after the service. A three-tier wedding cake topped with miniature wedding bells and punch was served to the guests.

Hear that Howard Collins is recovering nicely after undergoing surgery at the Torrance Memorial hospital.

Once more proving the old adage that men are good cooks when they set their minds to it were members of the Methodist church's building committee when they went to work and served a pancake breakfast last Sunday morning to a large crowd of customers.

The George Lambertsons have been busy this summer. Recently they returned from a vacation trip to Hornersville, Mo., where they visited Mrs. Lambertson's family. They visited Boulder Dam and Lake Mead on their way home. Just a few days after their return they were host to Mr. and Mrs. Ross McGough of Greenwich, Conn.

Other out-of-state visitors in our community were Mr. and Mrs. John Yeaman of St. Paul, Minn. They came to spend a few weeks with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Chuck Donsi.

Guesting with the Carl Cramers is Mrs. Martha Cramer. Carl's mother. Mrs. Cramer is from Chicago.

From all reports, Mr. Taylor deserved a vote of thanks for the wonderful job he has been doing directing recreation at the school grounds. High spot last week was the dance held for the young set at the school, complete with decorations and refreshments.

A group of PTA ladies have been enjoying their summer since joining in on the fun on Tuesday mornings with the game of volleyball. Mrs. Henry Fink is chairman of the program.

Joyce and Jimmy Williams packed up their gear and left on Friday evening for a week end of camping at Lake Mead. After setting up their tent and other equipment, they discovered the 120-degree heat was too much for them, so they went to an air conditioned motel.

A "have a good time" party was given for Mr. and Mrs. John Monaghan at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chuck Donsi last Friday evening before the Monaghans left on a vacation to San Francisco for two weeks. Gathering for the patio supper and fun were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Merrill, Mr. and Mrs. Monaghan, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Munn, Mr. and Mrs. Al Langston, Mr. George Halland and Miss Carol Evanson.

Mrs. Coleen Steele is proud of sister Virginia Gotts these days since that young miss was chosen Queen of the Torrance Community Fair.

The Bunco club met at the home of Mrs. Frankie Johnson, on Wednesday. Ginny Halland, Rita Lamperth, Mrs. Yeaman, Jean Donsi, Betty Langston, Bea Monaghan, and Marge Merrill, all enjoyed the fun of the evening, topped off with refreshments.

Mrs. William Morris Breaks Arm on Date of Anniversary

By SUE BURK
FR 5-4549

Both congratulations and condolences are in order for Mrs. William Morris of Reese Rd.

She was just getting ready to celebrate her 22nd wedding anniversary, when she fell and broke her arm, recently. She is recovering now, a little unhappy about the mishap which spoiled her anniversary.

Sympathies are being extended to Frank and Helen Adair, formerly of Vandervill Road, but now living in Ellinwood. A baby boy born to the Adairs on Friday, died two hours after birth. Frank and Helen have three other children.

Suffering a broken finger is Rosemary "Clancy" McClune, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim McClune of Doris Way.

Now a happy five is William Earl Burk, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Burk of Zakon. Butch was five years old on July 7.

A great big welcome to the neighborhood for Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Eddington and their three-old twins—a boy and girl—Thomas and Charing. Tom and Edith moved into their 5108 Zakon Rd. address approximately two weeks ago. Mr. Eddington is a retired Army Lieutenant Colonel.

Company has been welcomed in many homes these past two or three weeks. Visiting Mr. and Mrs. Jack S. Mitchell and family of Zakon Rd., were Mr. and Mrs. Tom Mitchell of Venice, and Mrs. Carolyn Pettus of Claremore, Okla., and Mrs. J. W. Hendon of Inglewood. The Mitchells gave their company varied attractions of trips to the many beaches and parks of this area.

Visiting over the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Burk of Zakon Rd., were Mr. and Mrs. Dan Nolan, of Hollywood; Barney Unrath and Laura Thompson, of Beverly Hills; George Hilpert, of Manhattan Beach, and Richard G. Fennell, recently of Parks Air Force Base. Dick is now in Redondo with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Fennell, while awaiting assignment to Texas Tech school.

Visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Richard Milanowski and daughter, Susan, this past week were Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Rupinski and daughter, Elizabeth. The Rupinski family is now in travel to Grand Rapids, Mich.

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Frank Renz is Richard Beal, formerly of Vandervill Road, U. S. Navy. Beal is awaiting the arrival of his parents and sister, Lt. Commander and Mrs. W. E. Beal and Janet, from Japan.

The Gene Williamson family, of Zakon Rd., spent the Fourth of July in Flagstaff, Ariz., for the Indian Pow-Wow. From there they visited the Grand Canyon. Company on the trip were Mrs. Williamson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Hostetler and her brothers, Bruce and Elden.

How many readers had a chance to go to the Torrance Fair? Win anything? Phone FR 5-4549. Remember, I can only write the news I hear from you, so call me.

The Scout Mother's Club, continuing its meetings through the summer months, met in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kollek, of Reese Rd. The usual business meeting was conducted by the new president, Mrs. Elinor Berry. Those present at the meeting were Mrs. Caudill, Margaret White, Emile Honzik, Barbara Bardeen, Myrtis Nix, Virginia Naumann, and hostess, Martha Kollek. Refreshments served with angel food delight and coffee. The next meeting will be held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Graham.

Your columnist has been on vacation recently, but is glad to get back to the ocean breezes after sweetening in the midwest. She visited Arkansas, Missouri, Colorado, and Zion National park, Utah, among other places.
